5 ILCS 140/7(1)(b) - Private Information	Section 7(1)(b) of FOIA (5 ILCS 140/7(1)(b) (West 2016)) allows a public body to withhold "[p]rivate information, unless disclosure is required by another provision of this Act, a State or federal law or a court order. Unique Identifiers, including a person's social security number, driver's license number, employee identification number, biometric identifiers, personal financial information, passwords or other access codes, medical records, home or personal telephone numbers, and personal email addresses, home addresses and zip codes, personal license plates, or signatures.	1, 14
5 ILCS 140/7(1)(c) - Personal Information - Clearly Unwarranted Invasion of Privacy.	"Unwarranted invasion of personal privacy" means the disclosure of information that is highly personal or objectionable to a reasonable person and in which the subject's right to privacy outweighs any legitimate public interest in obtaining the information. The disclosure of information that bears on the public duties of public employees and officials shall not be considered an invasion of personal privacy. Personal information contained in public records, the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, unless the disclosure is consented to in writing by the subject.	14-15
5 ILCS 140/7(1)(d) (i) - Pending Law Enforcement Proceedings	Interfere with pending or actually and reasonably contemplated law enforcement proceedings conducted by any law enforcement or correctional agency that is the recipient of the request.	7, 17
5 ILCS 140/7(1)(d) (v) - Investigative Techniques	Disclose unique or specialized investigative techniques other than those generally used and known or disclose internal documents of correctional agencies related to detection, observation or investigation of incidents of crime or misconduct, and disclosure would result in demonstrable harm to the agency or public body that is the recipient of the request.	11, 17
5 ILCS 140/7(1)(d) (iv) - Confidential	Unavoidably disclose the identity of a confidential source, confidential information furnished only by the confidential source, or persons who file complaints with or provide information to administrative, investigative, law
